

Parent Survey for Mr. Chan - 1,000,000 words or less!

Developing a productive and healthy relationship with you and your child is one of my highest priorities. Getting to know a student can make all the difference in their school success. I take this opportunity very seriously. I believe you as the parent play a key role in assisting me learn more about your child. The following questions will assist me in better getting to know your son or daughter.

Student's Name. Parent(s) / Guardian(s) name(s) and relationships.

---

---

---

---

1. Please briefly describe your child’s school history – include details about schools attended and successes, as well as challenges at these schools.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. What are your child’s strengths (not only academic)? In what is she/he most interested (inside and outside of school)?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. On what academic, social, or any other skills does your child need to focus?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. Please provide me with any tips or suggestions for getting the best out of your child. What motivates them to do their best work? What qualities or skills did previous teachers possess that your child appreciated?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. In times of stress, how does it show up in your child's behavior? What should I look for? How does your child deal with frustration? Is your child shy, sensitive, or nervous about anything I should be aware of or would like me to know about?

---

---

---

---

---

---

6. What do you admire most about your child?

---

---

---

---

---

---

7. How much time does your child read each day? Do they have access to books at home or the public library? Is there internet at home? Is there a printer?

---

---

---

---

---

---

8. If there are any other questions, concerns, or things you would like to let me know about, please list them here.

---

---

---

---

---

---

