Student activities and intervention time: 11:30-12:00

Student activities will not begin before September 7th – look for more information then.

Intervention time is time that teachers may request individual students or small groups to log into a Teams meeting for additional support. Until we are aware of which students are struggling with concepts – this time can be used by students to study or as a break from technology!