

Up and Down the Hill: Part 1

Sam got apples and hot dogs. He put them in his backpack.

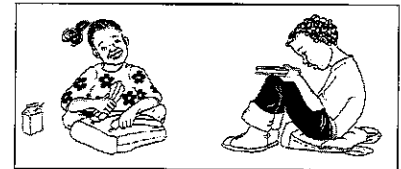

Ann put some milk in her pack. Then Ann and Sam went up the big hill.

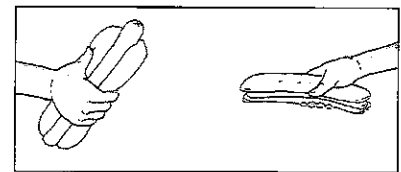

Riff went with them. He got to the top of the big hill.

Sam and Ann got hot. Sam sat down on his soft pack.

They got out the hot dogs. Sam said, "This bun is thin and flat."

Ann said, "This bun is not thin. It is big and thick."

Sam said, "This bun was thick, but then I sat on it."

Ann said, "Where is Riff? What is that dog up to?"

Sam said, “Where did Riff go? He was there on the hill.”

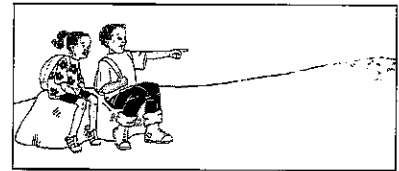

Riff was nowhere to be seen. Sam put his thin hot dog in his pack.

Then Sam and Ann went on up the hill. “Riff, Riff, come here.”

Ann and Sam got to the top of the hill. They sat on a big rock to rest.

Sam saw a black dot over by some grass. “I think he is over there,” he said.

As they ran over to the grass, the black dot got big. It had legs. It was Riff.

Ann said, “Riff, what did you do? You smell. You stink.”

Sam said, “Skunks can make that bad smell. A skunk got Riff.”

Riff did not kill the skunk. He did not like the bad smell.

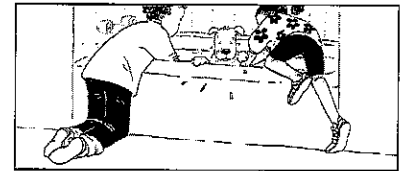

Sam said, "Look at Riff rub on the grass. Look at him lick his legs."

Riff ran over to Ann. "No, Riff, do not come here," said Ann.

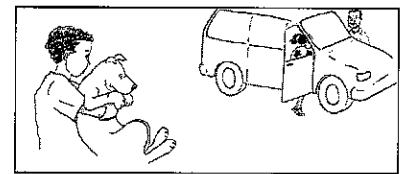

"I do not want to smell like that skunk. I do not want to stink like you."

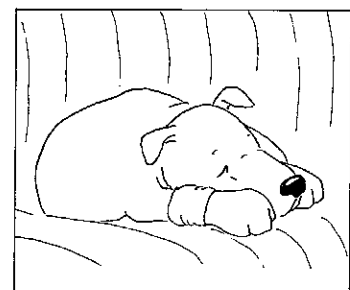

Sam and Ann went home with Riff. They put Riff in the bathtub.

"Look," said Sam. "Riff has a cut. The skunk cut his leg."

Dad, Sam, Ann, and Riff got in the van. They went to see the vet.

The vet put something on Riff's leg. Then Riff slept in the van.

Sam and Ann want some pet fish.
They get in the van with Dad.

Here they are at the pet shop. The pet shop sells fish, dogs, and cats.

There are lots of fish—red fish,
black fish, and pink fish.

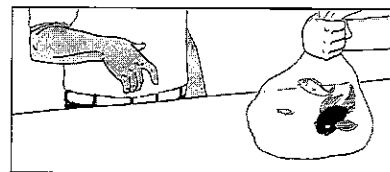

There are big fish and little fish.
The little fish swim fast.

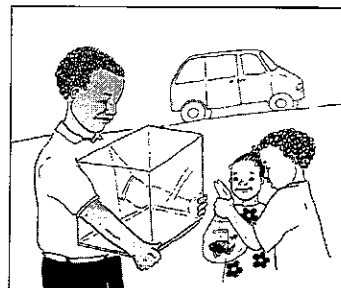

Ann and Sam like a little red fish.
Ann wants a big black fish.

Sam wants a fish that is big and pink. Dad gets all 3 fish.

The man in the pet shop puts the fish in a bag. It is a plastic bag.

Then Dad gets them a big fish tank. They all go home in the van.

Dad helps set up the fish tank. Sand goes on the bottom of the tank.

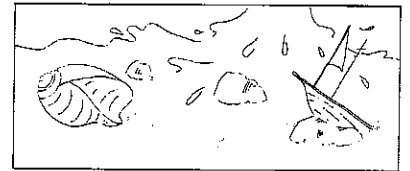

Then Ann puts in a big red shell. She puts in some rocks.

Sam has a little plastic ship. He wants to put it on a rock.

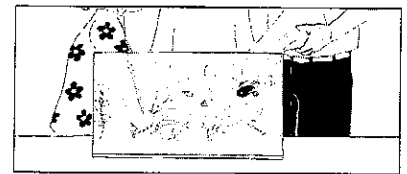

The little ship will be under the water. It will look as if it sank.

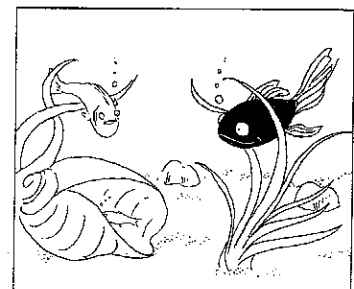

Dad puts in buckets of water. Then he puts some drops in the water.

Ann puts in some water plants.
Fish like to swim in back of plants.

Then Dad gets the plastic bag with the fish. He puts them in the tank.

The fish like the tank. They like the shells, the ship, and the plants.

Old Rabbit and Fox: Part 1

Old Rabbit hops up a little path.
He sees a little box on a rock.

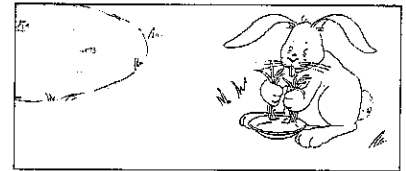

There are six candles in the box.
Old Rabbit puts the box in a bag.

Old Rabbit comes to a pond.
He sees fish in the water.

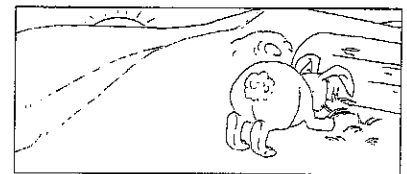

Rabbit drinks from the pond.
Then he picks some grass.

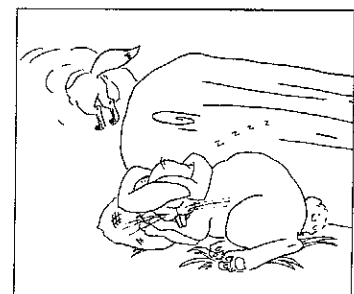

The grass will make a good snack.
He puts it in a dish.

Old Rabbit hops up the path.
The sun sets in the west.

It gets cold. Old Rabbit stops to make a bed in the grass.

Rabbit makes his bed by a log. The home of a fox is next to the log.

Old Rabbit and Fox: Part 2

Old Rabbit naps on the grass by the log. He gets cold.

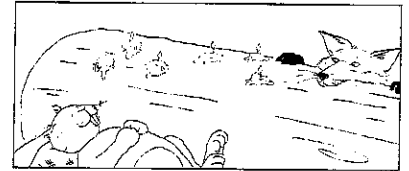

Rabbit thinks, "I can fix this." He gets out the box of candles.

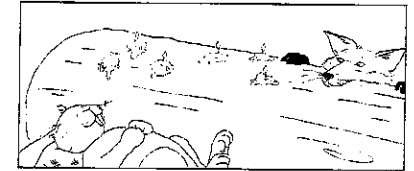

He puts all six candles on top of the log. He gets a match from his bag.

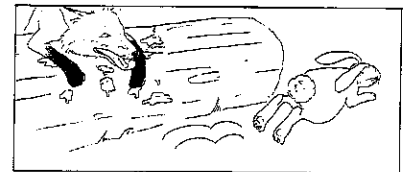

The candle wax melts. Some wax drips on Rabbit's chin.

Fox smells Old Rabbit. Fox gets up on the log by his home.

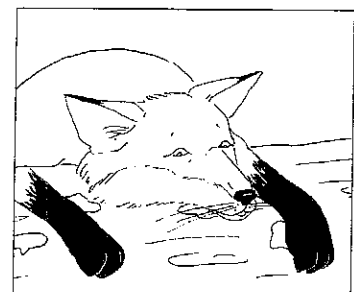

Fox says, "Rabbit, I will catch you. I will have you for lunch."

Old Rabbit gets up and runs. He thinks Fox will catch him.

But Fox is stuck in the wax. He will not have Rabbit for lunch.

Can Riff Find Us?

Sam and Ann like to hide from Riff. Sam goes in back of a bunch of sticks.

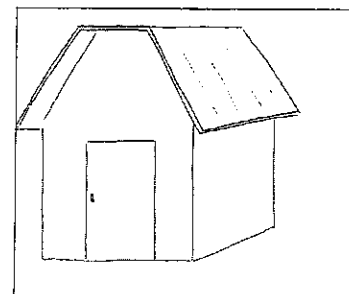

Ann gets under an old box. Then she calls, “Riff, come and find us.”

Riff finds Ann under the box. He finds Sam by the sticks.

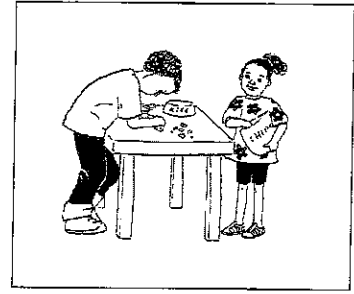

Sam says, “Let’s trick him. Let’s put some chips and nuts by the shed.”

Can Riff Find Us?

“Riff will go there and will not see us hide.” Sam chops some nuts.

He mixes the nuts with chips. Then he puts them by the shed.

Riff gets the nuts and chips. Then he finds Ann and Sam under a basket.

“How can he find us?” asks Sam. “I think he can smell us,” says Ann.

The Jet

I can make a jet out of paper. I fold it on this edge and that edge.

I fold it again and again.
My jet is all set to go up in the sky.

I toss my jet into the wind.
I see it fly over a box and over the shed.

My jet goes down by the grass. I try to jump over it.

The Jet

Will it hit the wall? No, it just makes it over the top.

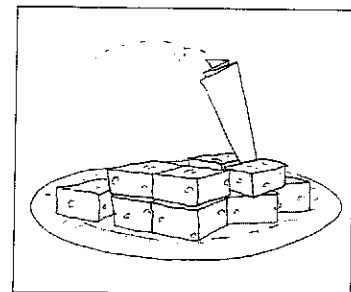

Many people try to catch it.
The jet flies past them.

Here it comes past me again.
Where will it land?

It lands on the edge of Mom's fudge. It's stuck there.

Mom's Leg

Dad said, "Let's go get your mom. She is in the hospital."

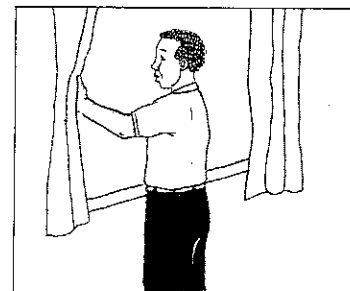

Mom was not very sick. She fell down and hit her leg on a rock.

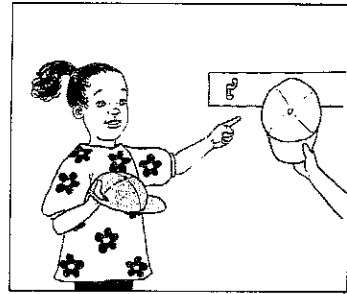

Mom had to have a cast put on her leg. She was all set to come home.

Dad said, "Put on your caps. It is very hot out there."

Mom's Leg

Ann said, "This red cap is my cap. That tan cap is your cap."

They all got in the van. Riff did not get to go on this trip.

Sam said, "Mom, we miss you so much!" "Shsh," said Dad, "do not yell."

Mom said, "I can not go just yet. I have to put on my dress."
