Using what you’ve learned about the lives of both the Patricians and the Plebeians of ancient Rome, create a dual character sketch explaining the differences.

Each Character must: (Caption length)

- have a background appropriate to their wealth
- see – a difference between themselves and the other
- Hear – sounds and voices that would be different from the other
- Taste – different foods – explain most common dishes in their diets
- Hold – explain and draw something that each group would hold
- Heart – near the heart, explain something that BOTH Plebeians and Patricians would hold dear/important

Legacy – explain what life was like for the Romans, both rich and poor.

Your character must be dressed appropriate to their station (wealth).
