High School Diploma

vs.

High School Equivalency

Which one is right for you?

Both the high school diploma and high school equivalency certificate lead to the same result for most employment and educational opportunities. The process for earning each of them is different.

High School
Diploma (HSD)

To earn a high school diploma, you must earn 160 credits.

High School
Equivalency
(GED or HiSET)

To earn a high school equivalency certificate, you must pass all subject area tests.

Which is the better choice for you?

What are your goals?

How many high school credits have you completed?

Which one is better for employment?

Do you have a time limit?

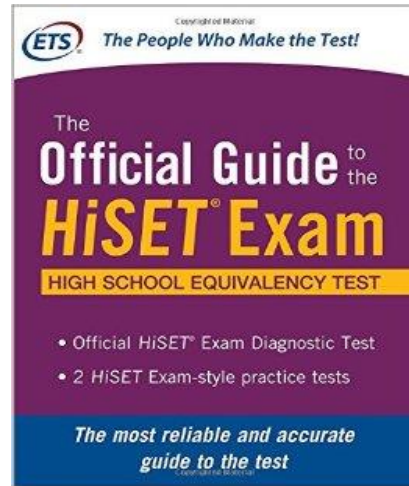

Our registrar is happy to discuss this with you.

ASSESSMENT

QUESTIONS
1-	A	B	C	D
2-	A	B	C	D
3-	A	B	C	D
4-	A	B	C	D
5-	A	B	C	D
6-	A	B	C	D

WHY do I take this assessment today?

1. to evaluate your academic skill level in reading and math.

1. CASAS Testing is a requirement to attend any adult

The Goals...

1. to increase your scores on the post assessments.

1. to demonstrate an educational level gain.

This isn't a pass-fail test.

CASAS Assessments are Required!

"California Adult School Assessment System"

Today you will take an assessment on the computer so can see if you need any remedial assistance in Math and/or Reading.

The assessment begins with 12 practice questions that help the system determine which test you will take.

After, you will have about 1 hour to complete the rest of the assessment (for each Reading and Math).

Once you complete your test you'll return to the front office and meet with our registrar, Leanna Miller.

Thank you!

Please do your best on the reading and math assessments

This isn't a pass-fail test.

CASAS Assessments

Evening classes-- students and staff should exit the classrooms at the same time. All classes end at 8:30pm. Please go straight to your car. If someone is picking you up, please ask that they arrive by 8:30pm.
