Date: March 2009
Proposed Grade Level(s): 6th – 8th
Grading: A – F

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course provides the student with an opportunity to learn, review, and expand the fundamentals of reading music while learning to play the recorder and glockenspiel. The student’s previous musical background will be taken into consideration to determine the course level, content, and pacing of the curriculum. Singing, music listening skills, care of the instruments, music appreciation, and composition will be included. Musical heritage will be explored. Assessment will be based on class participation, individual and group performance, and written work.

GENERAL GOALS/PURPOSES:

- Develop and reinforce skills in reading music and understanding music fundamentals.
- Learn to write and play original music compositions.
- Develop and increase awareness of skills such as tone production, rhythmical accuracy, good intonation, and articulation.
- Gain experience as an individual performer as well as a group performer.
- Foster enthusiasm and gain appreciation for other cultures and styles of music.
- Understand the historical significance of the music literature introduced in class.
- Develop listening skills and aesthetic appreciation for learning and enjoyment.
- Teach students to work together as a group.

STUDENT READING COMPONENT:

Students will read from a range of materials that will include biographical excerpts of historically significant composers, technological trends in music, and articles about successful musicians from current periodicals.

STUDENT WRITING COMPONENT:

Students will write critiques on their own or others performances, comparing and contrasting the merits or deficiencies and the effectiveness of a musical performance.

STUDENT ORAL COMPONENT:

Periodic in-class discussions will take place in order to assess the student’s understanding of new concepts that have been introduced.

DISTRICT ESLRs TO BE ADDRESSED:

Students will be:

- Self-directed Learners: Students will use techniques learned in class to analyze and solve a variety of musical problems presented to them in class.

- Effective Communicators: As students learn performance skills, they will gain confidence that will help them be more self assured and professional in other areas of their lives.

- Quality Producers/Performers: Students will develop an appreciation for the discipline required by the performing arts, thereby enhancing their work ethic and study skills.

- Collaborative Workers: Students will learn that they need to work together to produce a blended musical tone, and that, while individual knowledge and effort is required, listening to their classmates is of the utmost importance.

- Constructive Thinkers: Students will analyze their own performances and solve tone production problems, using techniques that they learn as the course progresses.

- Responsible Citizens: Students will demonstrate that their individual effort is essential to the group product.

Notes: Exploring Music will introduce the subject of music to students that have entered our district with little or no previous musical experience. It will also continue the music education of those students from within our district that have had some previous experience at the elementary schools but chose not to play in an orchestra, band, or sing in a choir. Lastly, Exploring Music will enlighten interested students to other opportunities available to them with regards to their music education, including taking up playing a band or orchestral instrument, singing in a choir, or playing the guitar or piano for the very first time.
