FOLSOM CORDOVA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

INDEPENDENT LIVING 1000

DATE: April, 2008

PROPOSED GRADE LEVEL(s): 6-12

GRADING: A-F

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
Independent Living will provide Living Skills (ILS) training, Community Based Instruction (CBI), Mobility training, Social Skills support and Functional Academics for students served by Student support Services. It will provide students opportunities to experience high school while preparing to become productive members of society. Small group and individual instruction are provided both on campus and in the community.

GENERAL GOALS/PURPOSES:
Students will have the opportunity to:

• Receive instruction in natural settings in the community
• Receive instruction at their individual levels
• Develop and refine functional academic skills
• Locate and access local businesses and restaurants
• Develop skills to locate and process information in a newspaper, phonebook, menu, calendar, etc.
• Participate in social situations available to high school students
• Develop vocational skills necessary to obtain a job
• Utilize public transportation
• Become as independent as possible
• Prepare for life post high school
• Access Adult Service Providers

STUDENT READING COMPONENT:
The degree to which a student can participate will vary and will depend upon individual strengths. Students will identify the structural features of popular media like newspapers, magazines and online information and use the features to obtain and process information. Students will locate and process information by using a variety of consumer, workplace and public documents like applications/forms, schedules, phonebooks, menus, directories/guides, recipes and calendars.

STUDENT WRITING COMPONENT:
The degree to which a student can participate will vary and will depend upon individual strengths. Students will practice printing legibly and spacing words appropriately when writing answers to questions related to local businesses (in the form of community scavenger hunts). Students will write from left to right and from top to bottom as they practice writing personal information. Students will legibly sign their signatures on timesheets, paychecks or registers.

STUDENT ORAL COMPONENT:
The degree to which a student can participate will vary and will depend upon individual strengths. Students will listen attentively then understand and follow one and two step oral directions. Students will share information and ideas, speak audibly and coherently while recounting experiences in a logical sequence as they relay summaries of their day to their peers and staff. Students will be encouraged to and reinforced for staying on topic and asking questions for clarification and to ask for assistance or directions as necessary. Students will practice ordering items from a simple menu and eating items in local restaurants in order to understand the concept of the exchange of money to purchase goods and services in their community.
