FOLSOM CORDOVA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

AP 2-D Design

DATE: November 2012
PROPOSED GRADE LEVEL(S): 11th-12th
GRADING: A-F
PREREQUISITES: Art levels 1 & 2 or teacher review

SUBJECT AREA: Visual & Performing Arts
COURSE LENGTH: One to Two Years
NUMBER OF CREDITS: 5 per semester

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
AP 2-D Design is an advanced art course for self-directed art students wishing to create a twenty-four piece portfolio for college credit. The portfolio takes the place of an AP exam, and consists of three sections: “Breadth”, “Concentration” and “Quality.” Any two-dimensional medium or process, including, but not limited to, graphic design, digital imaging, photography, collage, illustration, painting, and printmaking may be submitted for review. Students will develop mastery of a variety of techniques, depth of artistic voice, and improve their ability to critically evaluate their work and the work of others. Upon completion of their portfolio, students will digitally submit their work for a formal evaluation by the AP College Board. Portfolios are graded with a score of 0-5. Students receiving a score of 3 or better receive college credit. This class offers students the unique opportunity to explore a college-level course in a field not often offered at the high school level, while simultaneously serving to help students in choosing to pursue a degree or career in the Fine Arts.

GENERAL GOALS AND PURPOSES:
Students will:
- Create twenty-four 2-D pieces of art which will display a variety of art techniques, mediums and/or ideation that demonstrates the student’s diverse art ability.
- Thoughtfully select their own medium and focus based upon their personal interests, which may grow and develop as their portfolio progresses.
- Develop their ability to grow within a theme or concept.
- Demonstrate a collection of their best work.
- Practice higher level critical thinking and verbal communications during weekly review sessions.
- Research a professional artist and conduct a class presentation.
- Be expected to move beyond their current experiences.

STUDENT READING AND WRITING COMPONENT:
During the course of the school year, each student is required to read and write about professional as well as a peer’s work, or an art movement in the form of a critique, research papers and brainstorming activities. Many of these assignments will require reading from the school library, class resources, or web based research.

STUDENT ORAL COMPONENT:
Class critiques are mandatory and will take place regularly. The purpose of the critiques is to discuss each individual artwork, determine its strengths and weaknesses, and assist the artist with an appropriate future direction of work. The student will be graded for critique participation as well as for the work submitted.

DETAILED UNITS OF INSTRUCTION:
The AP portfolio consists of three sections. The breadth section is meant to show a diverse range of technical abilities. The concentration section is a group of images that displays an in-depth development of a concept or ideation. The quality section is a collection of the student’s best images. Each quarter students will produce images from the above sections with the approval and direction of the instructor. Note: the outline of topics

DISTRICT ESLR’S TO BE ADDRESSED:

Students will be:

- Self-Directed Learners: Able to apply their knowledge of history, culture, and design to solve open-ended projects. Students will be able to revise and reflect on their ideas and solutions and explore career options related to art and photography.

- Effective Communicators: Able to successfully communicate ideas and emotions through an understanding of the visual elements of design. Students will utilize knowledge of art history and design to discuss design solutions and critique student work. Students will present portfolios and develop presentations.

- Quality Producers/Performers: Able to demonstrate the creative ability and technical skills to produce solutions to specific design problems, presentations, and portfolios.

- Constructive Thinkers: Using acquired technical skills to creatively solve design problems and reflect upon the characteristics and merits of their work and the work of others. Students will use their knowledge to analyze other design solutions using the strategies of art criticism. Students will gather and evaluate information from written and Internet resources on photographers and historical periods.

- Collaborative Workers: Able to work together to create solutions for group projects. Students will participate in group critiques of student projects. Students will participate in class discussions on aesthetics.

- Responsible Citizens: Maintaining classroom equipment and materials. Students will be responsible for supporting peers and commenting appropriately on their work.
