COURSE OUTLINE

SPANISH I

Date: March 2006
Subject Area: World Language
Proposed Grade Level(s): 8
Course Length: 1 Year
Grading: A – F
Number of Credits: None – Students will have the opportunity to move to Spanish II if they meet the prerequisite requirements provided by the high school.
Prerequisites: None required, one elective wheel of Spanish prior to course is recommended.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Spanish I is an introductory course to the Spanish Language and cultures of today. Emphasis is on development of the four major language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. In addition to these skills, students will explore the many facets of Hispanic cultures and heritage through the use of a text, video, audio, and workbook program. The course is conducted in the target language using the immersion method.

GENERAL GOALS/PURPOSES:

Students develop a basic proficiency in the target language and develop cultural awareness and sensitivity to others.

STUDENT READING COMPONENT:

Students must take an active role in the reading process, constantly inferring, deducing, anticipating, guessing, predicting, checking and asking themselves questions about the text. Students read simplified texts written by native speakers. As the students begin to progress, readings will come from original texts, ads, poetry, and narratives that are introduced by reading strategies and culminated in achievable tasks.

STUDENT WRITING COMPONENT:

Writing instruction in Level 1 guides students carefully through the pre-writing, writing, and editing processes. It is designed to facilitate proficient use of vocabulary and grammatical structures in a personalized context. Students will progress from writing simple sentences to paragraphs, to short stories, and to letters.

STUDENT ORAL COMPONENT:

Oral proficiency activities combine all the elements in the units of study-function, topics, vocabulary and structures in the context of role-playing, partner, and group activities. These activities give students a chance to integrate what they have learned in real communication with others. Participation in daily oral activities will be a mandatory part of this class.
